

Answer all questions:

1. [10 points]. Write and test an adding machine program that repeatedly reads in integers and adds them into a running sum. The program should stop when it gets an input that is zero, printing out the sum at that point

2. [10 points]. Write and test a program that reads in three integers and prints out the sum of the largest two of the three